Richard Morley, the British coach of the Nepal ski team, a businessman and former skier himself talks to Reuters during an interview at the Alpine Skiing World Championships 2009 in the French resort of Val d'Isere February 4, 2009. Nepal has two giant slalom racers raring to go at the world Alpine ski championships -- all they need now are some skis. No money for new skis was forthcoming from the Nepal Ski Association, said the team's coach Richard Morley, so the Himalayan nation's first appearance at the world championships now depended on charity.
